

An Isle of Wight farming family wearing straw crowns, possibly as part of harvest celebrations.

The photograph shows some of the Sloper and Knowles families who lived on a farm in Wilmingham, near Freshwater, photographed around 1924

Emma Sloper, later Wendes, is seated third from the right with the headband on. Her mother, born Jessie Knowles is standing far left. Her grandmother (Knowles) is seated beside her. Thank you to Jo Palfrey for permission to use the photo here.

